Attached is a modified flow chart based on input from Jerry Meral for inclusion in our discussion tomorrow. Jerry is concerned with the complexity of the chart and the appearance that the structure isn't any different than what currently exists, and would prefer something more akin to the original Figure 7.1 (also attached). The issue is not the roles in decision making as much as how it is presented. With this change though it call into question the Agency-Stakeholder Review and Coordination Group. Carl
